

School Mourns Dead Teen, Inhalant Abuse Believed to Be the Cause

Fortunately, Scott Noble's parents talk with him about the dangers of sniffing ordinary household products to get high, so this didn't happen. When you talk with your kids about drugs, they're less likely to use. For information, visit www.drugfreeamerica.org or call 1.800.729.6686. Partnership for a Drug-Free America.[®]
